

POOR LITTLE GT GIRL

She deems herself to be better than everyone
She considers herself better than even her own kind
Not black but Indian she insists
She claims her little ones are white as snow
No pigment in their skin she demands
Is she color blind??
She rambles about how they look like their father
And no one believes she is their mother
Is she naive??
Blessed with a wicked smile
Gifted with two faces
Eyes gloomy, bitter and cold as winter's night
No knowledge of Dr. King or what he achieved
No understanding or awareness of where the south is No comprehension of the civils rights movement or when it was
No idea who Rosa Parks was or what she did
Words spoken without respect or consequence
Some say she is just plain racist
Some claim ignorance is part of her DNA
They laugh to her face
They compliment her smile
It is no surprise they all pretended to be kind
They too were gifted and blessed with similar qualities
